Additional comments Questions?

Past Participation: If you have participated in the festival before, you can send a check along with your application. There are new changes this year and your space cannot be guaranteed. Spaces will try to be honored with past participation. Try to get your application in early as the spaces will be filled up when applications and payment are received. You will also be able to choose your space and know where you will be instead of having to wait.

New Vendors: Please submit 3 photos and an explanation of how you make your art or craft. If you send payment along with your contract the deposit of payment will let you know that your accepted. Kits and imported products will not be allowed. The Lions club has the right to remove any product that they may deem offensive or not made by the artist.

Food Vendors: And or vendors with food related products will need to adhere to all the health dept. guidelines if offering sampling.

There is no commission this year. We have done away with that in order to make vendors focus on sales and participation. Hopefully this will make it easier for the vendors. If there are any concerns please address them to the director and the festival committee. We will try to work with you. If for any reason you can't be there all three days then please address that.

The town and venue: Many changes are being made this year that will bring about a lot of people. Food trucks, entertainment, and the beer garden. Eatonville is a wonderful small town with a lot of locals that support this event. It is one of the biggest weekends for travel to the mountain and Eatonville is on your way to Paradise and Mount Rainier National park so it brings quite a few people through. There will be more signs, arrows pointing to the park and more community support this year. Held at the Glacier View park in Eatonville for the past 48 years.

Juried art show: New this year, instead of an art auction there will be a large tent that will display local and regional artist submissions. Categories will include, Oil painting, watercolor, acrylic, 3 dimensional, and photography. You will be able to submit one piece if you are a vendor. Further information will be available on the website and Facebook.

Parking: There will be overnight parking which will be updated later and more signs showing you where to park.

Set up time: Thursday August 2nd from 2 till 8:30 and Friday August 3rd from 7 to 10:00. All vehicles must be out of the park by 10:00 Friday morning. You will have 1 hour to unload and move your vehicle. We ask that once you have unloaded that you move your vehicle and finish setting up. If you need longer you need to ask.

Tear down time: You will not be able to bring your vehicle in until you have packed up all your product. This is one of the hardest times so please be considerate. If you have a large vehicle and trailer you may have to wait. You will have 30 min to pack up. We are all in the same boat and all eager to go home so try to do it with consideration. There is one gate to go through unless you want to cart it out. Without the large tents in the center this should go a lot easier.

Deadlines: Applications will be accepted after or until space fills up. We will jury your submissions so if there are too many jewelry and you have waited you may not get accepted. Get them in early. 50% refund on cancelations up to June 15th and no refunds after that date.
